Public Consultation

June 10, 2010

The Story so Far...

- Extensive consultation in 2008 to define the role of the Central Library
- Resulted in the Building Program “A Partnership of Culture and Learning”
- Funding secured from three levels of government
- Council approved the project and funding plan
- Council approved engagement of architects

Funding Summary

Government of Canada (Building Canada Program)	$18.3 million
Province of Nova Scotia	$13.0 million
Halifax Regional Municipality	$23.7 million
TOTAL	$55.0 million

The Building Should Be:

- A source of pride and inspiration
- Accessible, bright and welcoming
- Environmentally friendly and sustainable
- A rich resource centre for knowledge, learning and personal growth
- An adaptable and flexible space
- An active part of daily life
- A new approach to traditional service
- Reflect new developments in technology
- A vibrant cultural hub

What's Happening

A series of consultations to express our hopes and dreams for the Central Library and how it will define our city.
